Good Day and Greetings from Soweto, South Africa

Latest News from our INCLUSIVE CHICKEN FARM MACUBENI:

We are still facing a cold winter here in South Africa and the cold and strong winds in the mountains of Macubeni even made me, as a German, talk a bit about “cold”. Our Broiler Chicken are all sold and every day we sell around 45 to 50 eggs from our 49 layer hens.

The Photos below show Masauso Phiri and Andreas Woerster on the back of the Evonik Pick Up. We hope you also recognise the NICE JACKET; OUR BVB DORTMUND is with us even on our long journeys in Southern Africa. The other photo was taken at the Afgri Mill in Paterson, a small town in the Eastern Cape near Port Elizabeth.

Evonik Africa (Pty) Ltd and Utho Ngathi Chicken Farm Project Macubeni.

Our second cycle was successfully completed and 280 Chicken were sold!!! We reduced the mortality rate from 39 Chicken to 20 Chicken and we are proud of our Staff Members in Macubeni.

We are also proud that through the sales of the 280 chicken we were able to give a small stipend to 10 members of the Inclusive Chicken Farm Macubeni and in addition to 5 Home based carers of Utho Ngathi who walk long distances from Voillae to Vilklage visiting persons with disabilities; giving them hope, love and care in their often very difficult lives in poverty stricken communities of Macubeni.
